1. Rumania.

The Moria, Closca, Crisan and Tudor Vladimirescu Divisions have been disbanded for some time. In their place there are three "special motorized corps", with headquarters respectively at Craiova, Sibiu, and Bucharest. Each special corps has a strength of one light division. They conduct normal training activity.

Soviet armored units (unspecified) are in the Bazias and Lovrin areas.

The 211 and 214 Soviet Armored Divisions, 43 Soviet Infantry Division, 18 Rumanian Infantry Division and 4 Rumanian Cavalry Brigade are in training in the Timisoara-Arad Zone. There is a replacement depot for Soviet troops at Braila.

2. Bulgaria.

At Kazanlek there is a headquarters of an armored division which is composed of two brigades, whose headquarters are at Kazanlek and Plovdiv. This division is believed to have been transferred in the vicinity of the Yugoslav border.

In Kazanlek there are about 70 T-34 tanks, belonging to one regiment of two battalions, each composed of two companies.

One regiment of tanks is located in Plovdiv, another in Sofia. However, both regiments were recently transferred to the Yugoslav frontier. Each regiment has about 70 tanks.

The supply dumps are located as follows:

Sofia: Tanks, munitions and food.

Kyustendil: Tanks, munitions, petroleum, oil and lubricants.

Petrich: Tanks, munitions, petroleum, oil and lubricants.

Vidin: Tanks, munitions and food.

Lom: Aircraft.

Svistov, Nikopol: No dumps.

Near Varna (Balci): Aircraft.

Near Burgas (Sozopol): Munitions.

Carevo: Munitions and food.

There are no deposits of bridge building equipment setup nor other preparations made along the Danube between Bulgaria and Rumania. There is a plan known to exist for the erection of a bridge between Ruse and Giurgiu.

Between Radomir and Kyustendil there is located a part of 1 Infantry Division from Sofia. Headquarters of 7 Infantry Division is located at Gorna Dzhumaya.

3. Hungary.

Headquarters of 1 Mechanized Division is located in Budapest with 1 Tank Regiment at Kenyermezo (sic) and 2 Tank Regiment at Orkeny. The Division has 240 T-34 tanks and 30 armored cars.

There is no evidence of dumps in the above-mentioned areas. Soviet troops are reported north and east of Szeged. An international brigade and Soviet 81 Armored Division are reported maneuvering in Bahony.

4. Albania.

Details are lacking on armored units. However, one unit equipped with about 100 tanks, of which 60 are of 16-18 tons, 30 of 40 tons, all are Soviet manufacture. The same unit also has about 20 armored cars, and other war booty tanks. This regiment (?) is believed concentrated almost entirely in Tirana. An unspecified number of tanks are also reported in the Gjinokaster and Kavja Zones.

The 1 Division is in Tirana, 5 Division in Gjinokaster and 8 Division in Korce.
